Canadian Fencing Federation Membership (valid August 1 – July 31)

- A CFF license is required to participate in all classes.
- Associative memberships are for fencers NOT intending to compete at tournaments.
- Competitive memberships are required to compete in sanctioned events at tournaments.
- Athletes may fence up to 3 times in a membership cycle without a membership.
- Must be paid online to the Canadian Fencing Federation here: <http://fencing.ca/>

Clothing and Equipment

Beginner fencers should wear indoor non-marking running or court shoes while fencing. Light-weight athletic wear is recommended.

Each fencer must provide his/her own fencing glove. A glove is worn only on the sword hand. All other fencing equipment is provided.

Please consult the Head Coach for equipment prices and sizing.

Fencers registered in the Advanced or Advanced Competitive class must provide their own equipment.

Equipment Repair Clinics

Recommended for fencers who own their own equipment. Check our website for dates.
